A DIFFERENT PERSPECTIVE
ON A FAMILIAR WORLD.

The Photographer

A. Abdelmohssen has been photographing the world around him for many years, developing a keen eye for strong images and the elements that make them memorable. Photography records where he has been while revealing perspectives, details and moments that others may pass by. Years behind the camera have sharpened his instinct for composition, light and timing. He is drawn to architecture, places and the details that reveal their character - the geometry of a building, an unexpected reflection, shifting light or a spontaneous moment while traveling.

His work ranges from landmarks and cityscapes to quiet streets and everyday scenes. In cinematic color, selective color and timeless black-and-white, each photograph receives the treatment that best serves the subject. Curiosity, careful observation and a distinctive perspective connect the body of work.
